HARRY B. WALL

THE CLASS OF 1972 PROUDLY DEDICATES THIS YEARBOOK TO THE MEMORY OF THE LATE HARRY B. WALL

Mr. Wall was a native of Tamaqua and attended the North Ward Elementary School and Tamaqua High. He then entered Muhlenberg College and upon graduation in 1942, he enlisted in the service and began his teaching career at Chanute Field in Rantoul, Illinois. Following the war he took his first high school teaching job at Wiconisco, Pa., where he taught history. April of 1945 marked the beginning of Harry's twenty-six years at Northampton High.

During those years Mr. Wall became known by many people through his varied interests and endeavors. He served as teacher, coach, and journalist; he was a fund raiser for charities and even was active politically, having been a candidate for mayor of the borough. Harry was many things to many people and any attempt to list them all would require more pages than this one. But, to us, the members of the Class of '72, and certainly, the members of every graduating class since 1945, Harry was three things — coach, teacher, and friend.

Harry's career as a wrestling coach began one day in the locker room of the old Junior High School. Wrestling was unknown in Northampton and Harry and another faculty member tried to arouse interest in tryouts for the first team by putting on an exhibition. Unfortunately, each discovered upon stepping on the mats that, without glasses, the opponent was hard to find. The exhibition was not an overwhelming success but did attract enough candidates so that Northampton was able to enter wrestling competition in 1946. The team did not win a match that year and did not have a winning season until 1953. In the nineteen years that followed there were only two seasons that Harry's team did not have a winning season. He is the father of wrestling in the Lehigh Valley League with an overall record of 180 wins, 110 losses, and 4 ties. He was instrumental in founding the league and in the eight years his teams wrestled in it, they won seven league titles and were tournament champions five times. The record is outstanding as was the man, and every boy who wrestled for him emerged from the experience a better man because of his exposure to Harry B. Wall.

One word comes to mind when thinking of the teaching career of Mr. Wall — dedication. Wrestlers can remember him seated at a table conducting practice sessions while marking papers. Teachers remember his patience with students who had difficulty learning and his refusal to put up with students who refused to learn. Mr. Wall taught history, math, science, and English and taught them well, but it is his drive to excel that he communicated and implanted in the students who were lucky enough to have had him. They learned the subject matter because Harry made them learn it, but they were better people when they left the classroom simply because he was there.

We remember Mr. Wall as a coach, we remember him as a teacher, but those of us who were a little closer to him remember a friend. We remember him shouting, joking, urging, constantly urging. We remember him lying alongside his wrestlers on the mat, encouraging his boys and "helping" the ref. We remember him judging track meets and collecting tickets at baseball games. We remember him going from student to student in the Cafeteria joking, encouraging, correcting. We remember him shooting from half court in faculty basketball games. We remember him drinking coffee in the faculty room, joking, arguing, helping. We remember a man who did some very kind things that few people knew about. We remember a man always willing to help out, to do a favor, to get involved. Yes, we remember him; we will never forget our friend, Harry B. Wall.

To lose a friend is the greatest of all evils, but endeavour rather to rejoice that you possessed him than to mourn his loss.
— Seneca

IN MEMORIAM

It singeth low in every heart,
We hear it each and all, —
A song of those who answer not,
However we may call;
They throng the silence of the breast,
We see them as of yore, —
The kind, the brave, the true, the sweet,
Who walk with us no more.

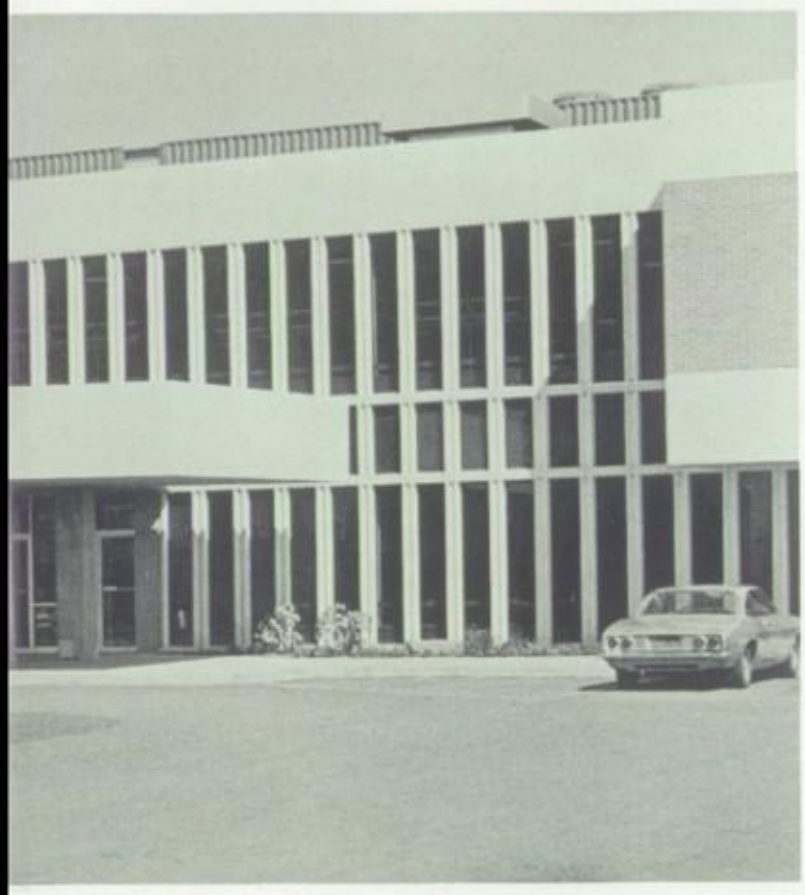
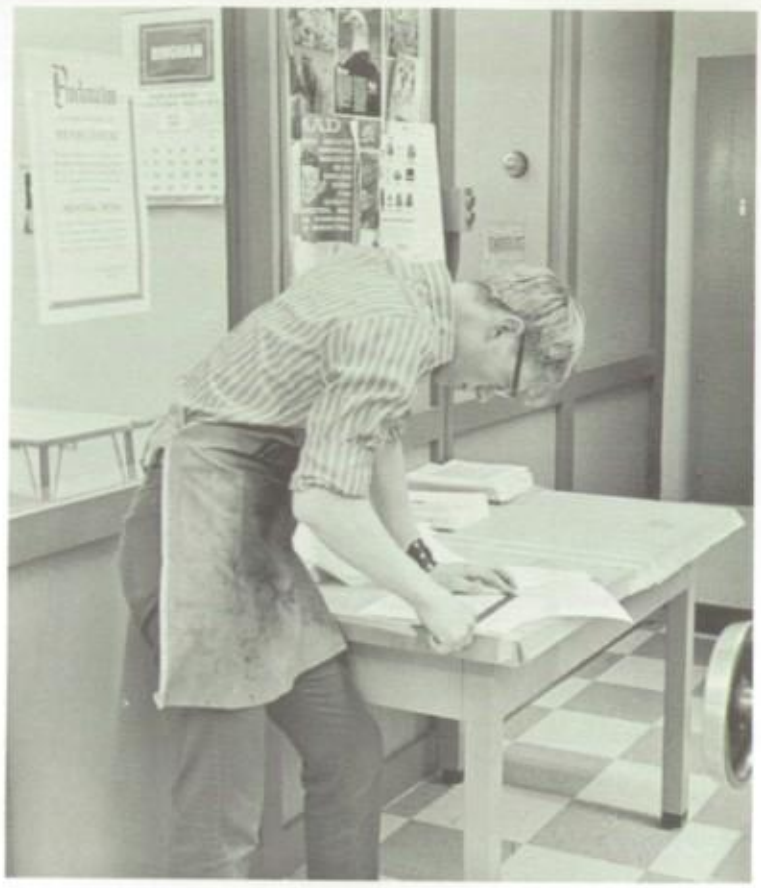
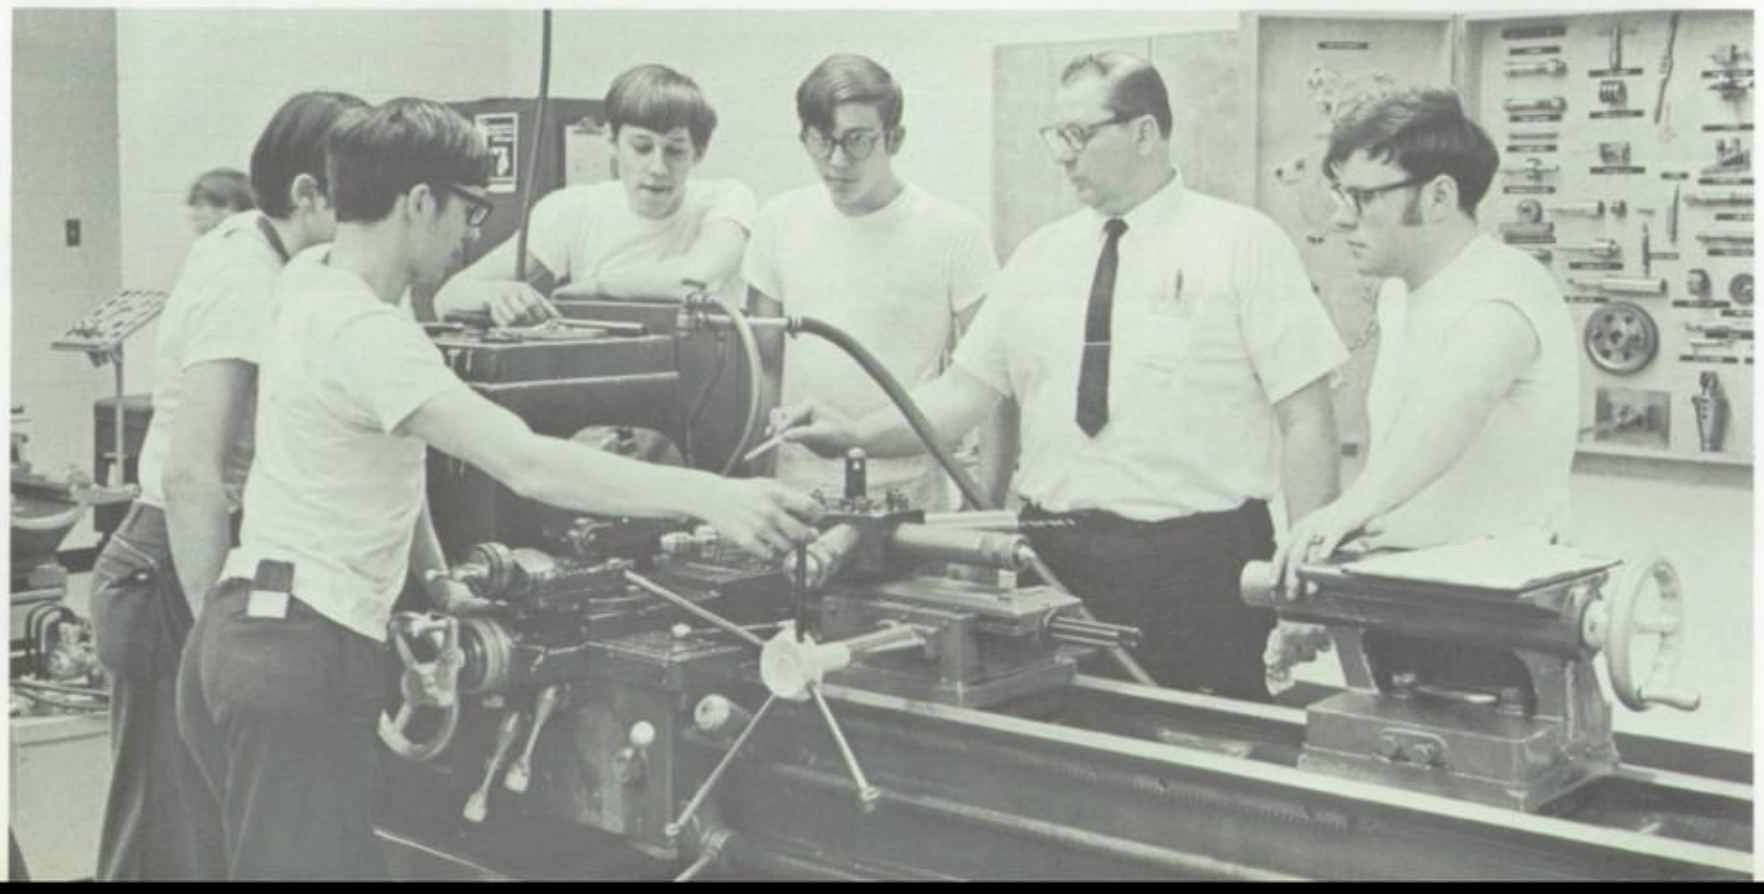
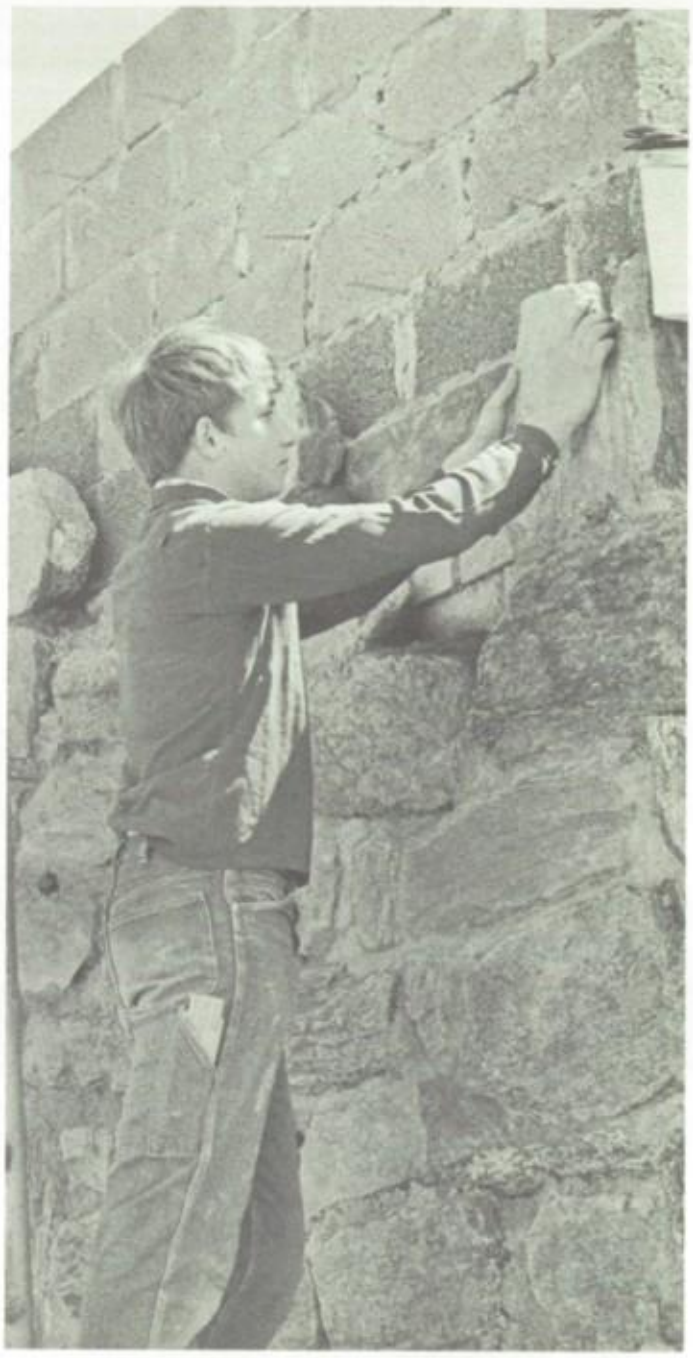
VO-TECH



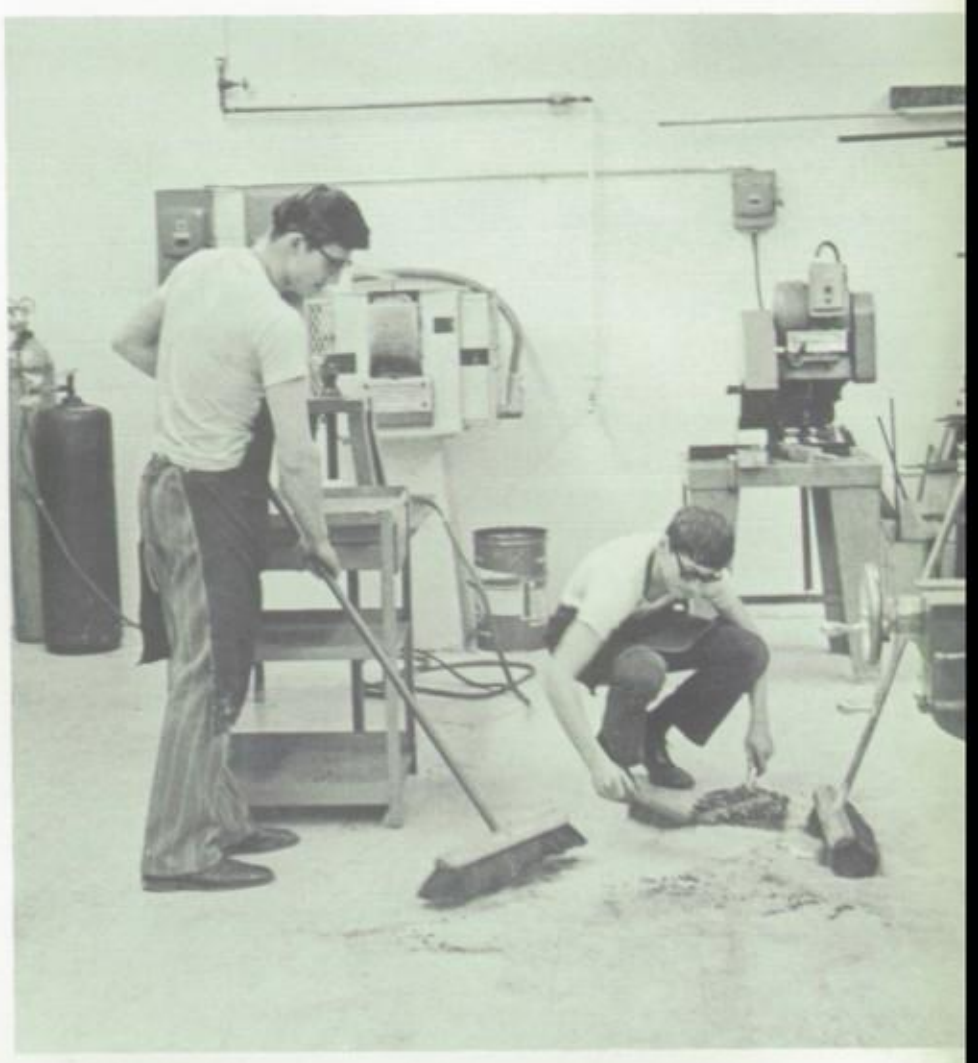


Sinking into life to come more alive.





We do not come to believe in ourselves until someone reveals that deep inside us something is valuable . . . worth listening to . . . worthy of our trust . . . sacred to our touch.



Each moment of discovery is part of our aliveness with that life which forever impels us to go further.

totally absorbed moments . . . caught . . . pulled out of ourselves . . . recreated.

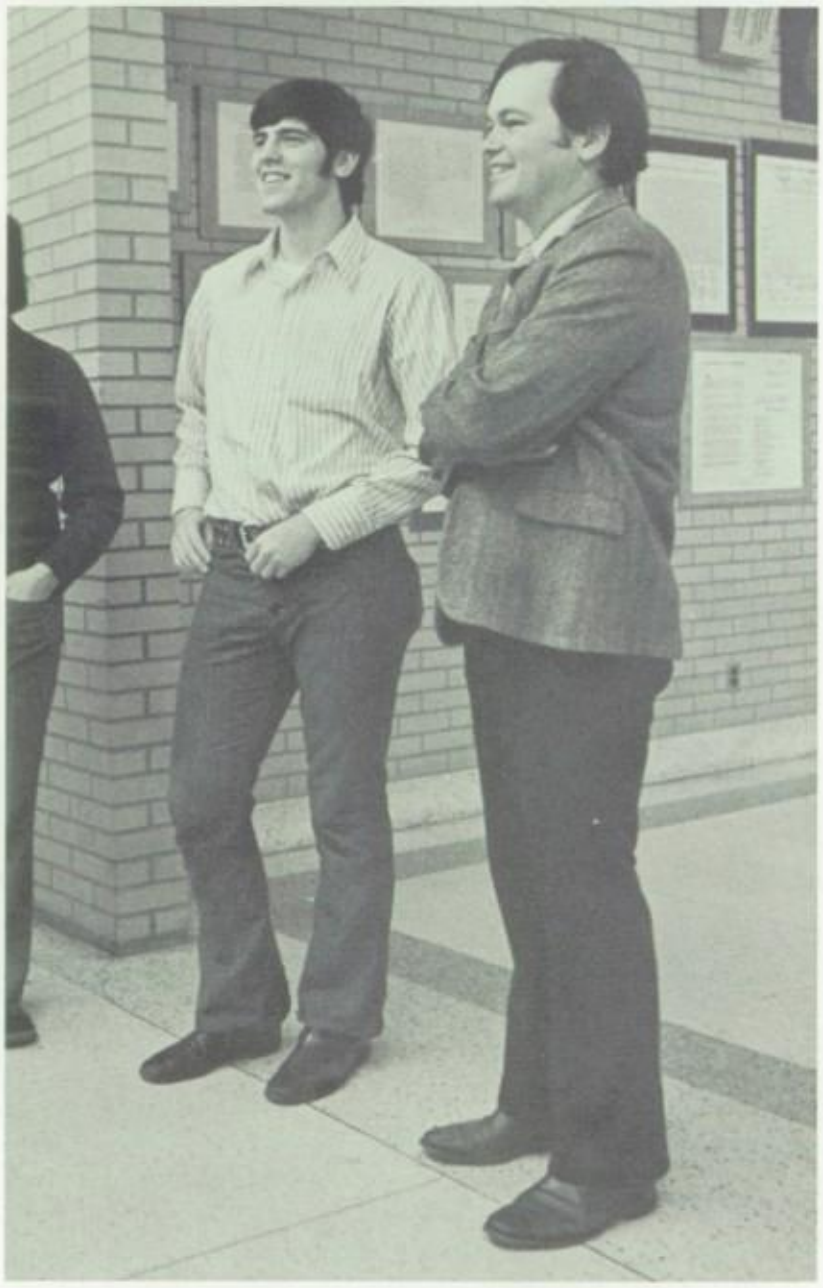
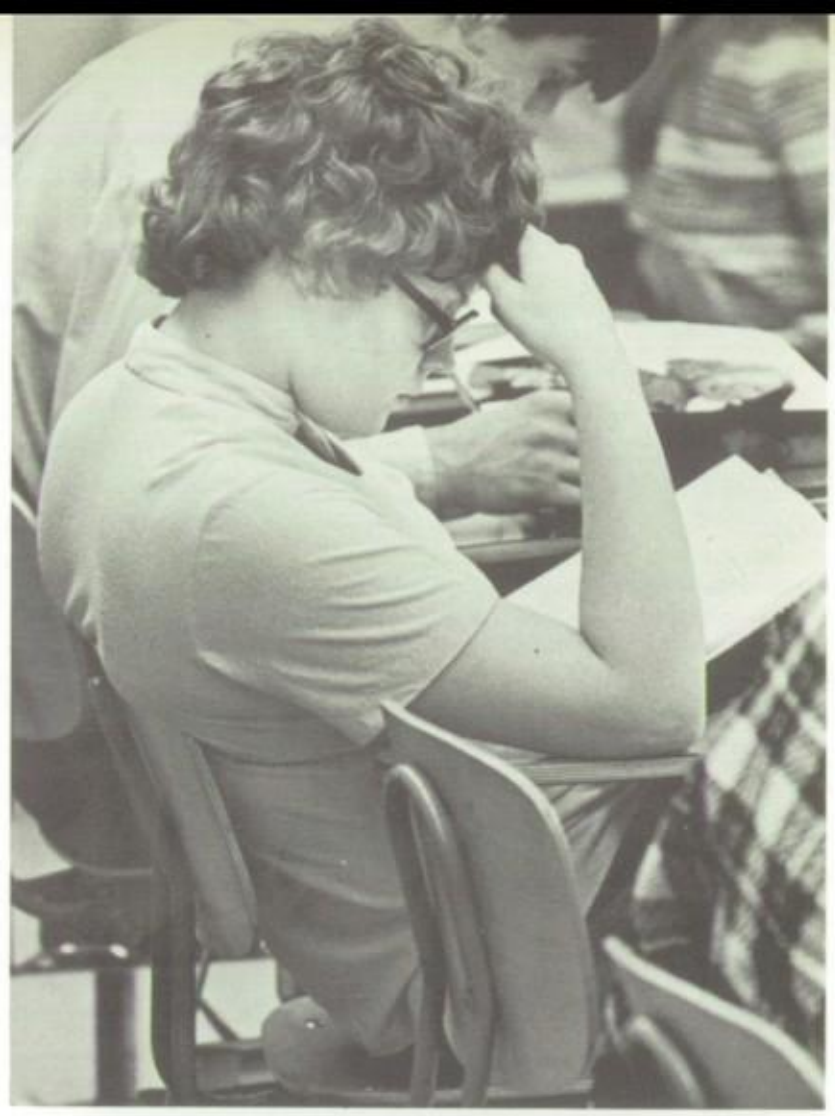
R

Once we believe in ourselves we can risk . . . curiosity . . . wonder . . . spontaneous delight . . . or any experience that reveals the human spirit.





inner liberation . . . moments of feeling something is just right.

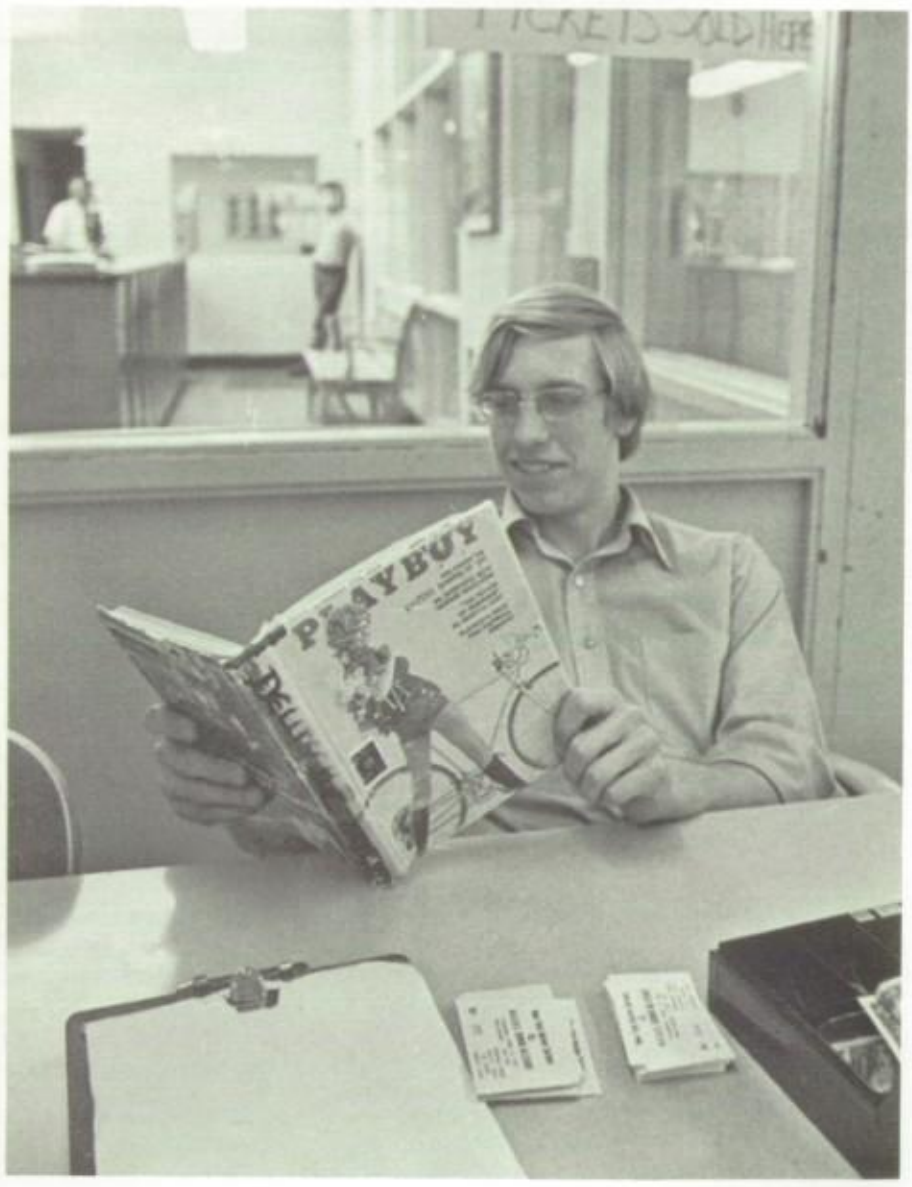
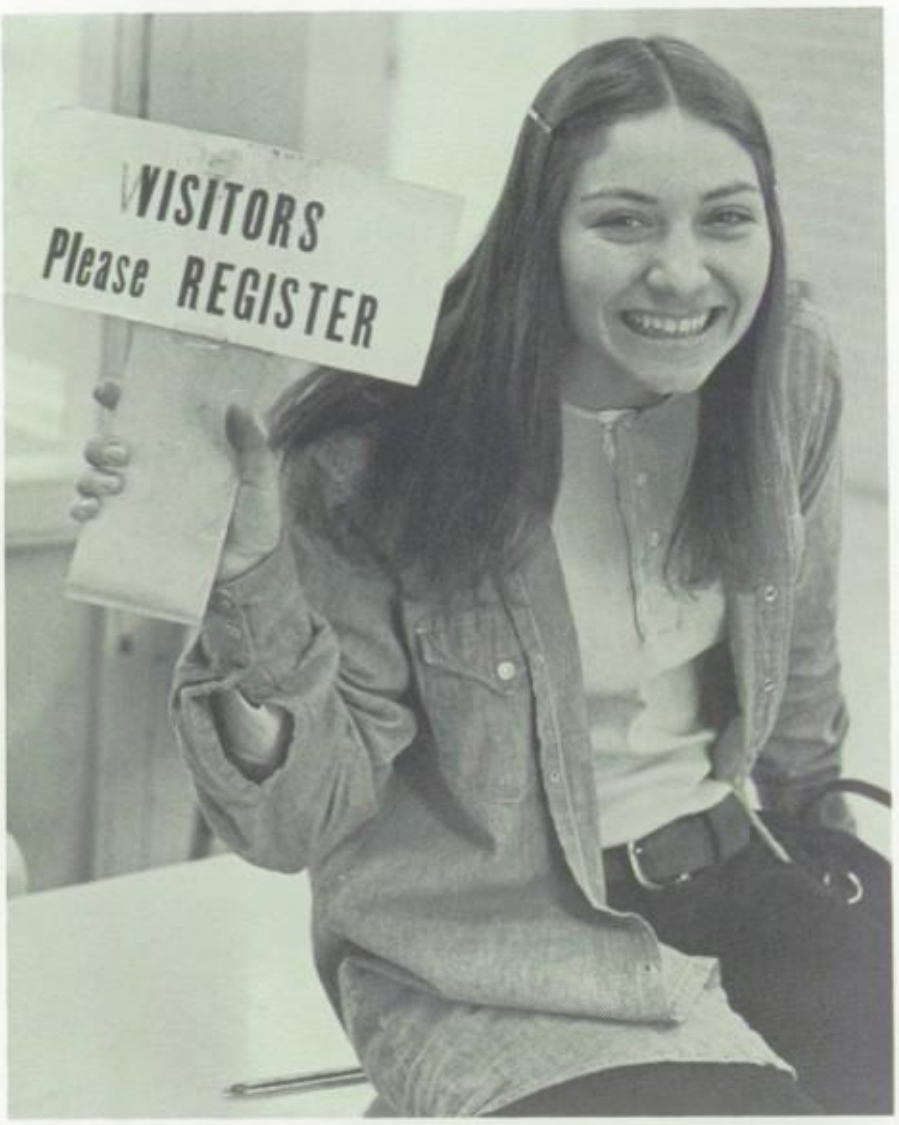
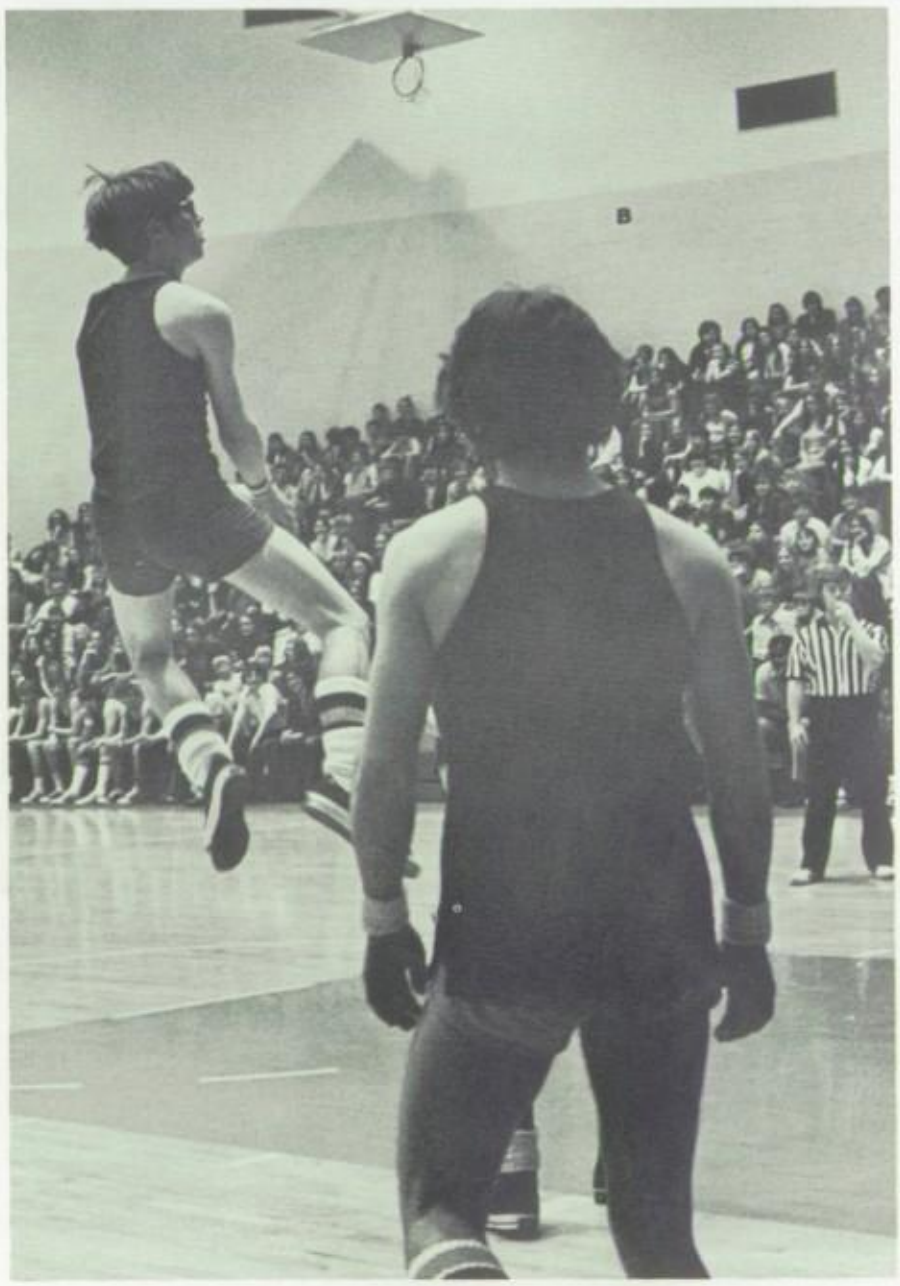
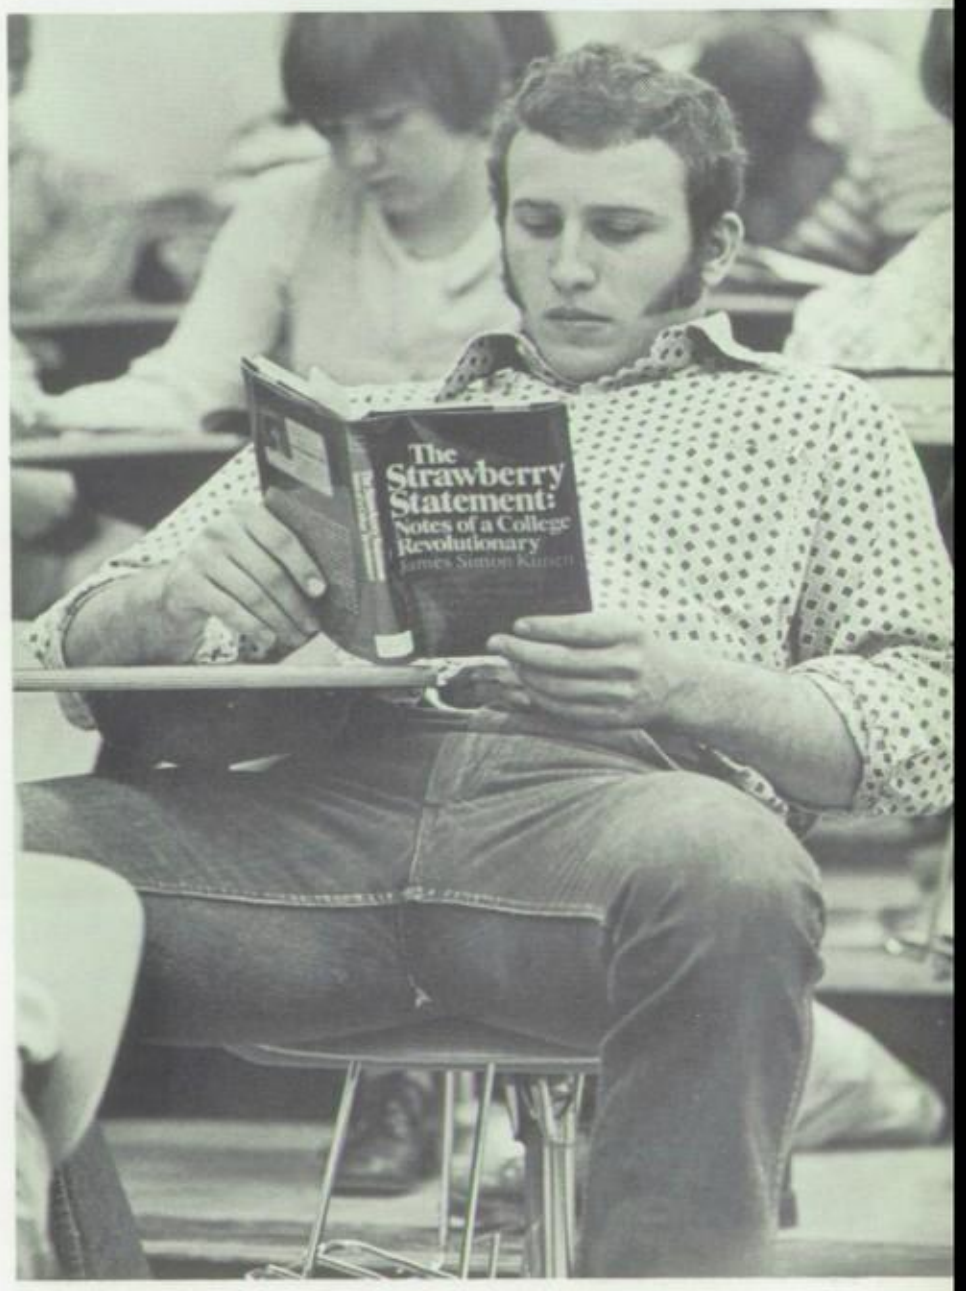
now pause to take a deeper look . . . but at a slower pace this time.

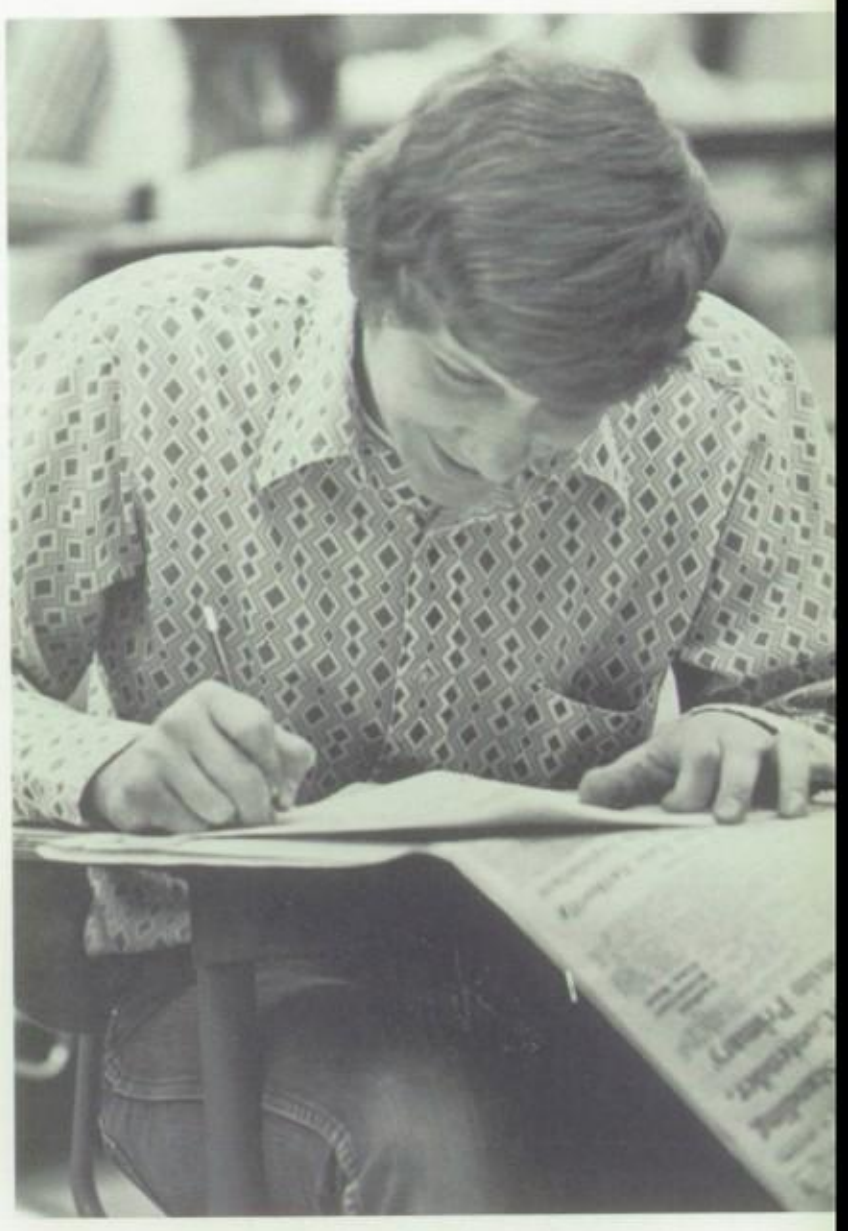




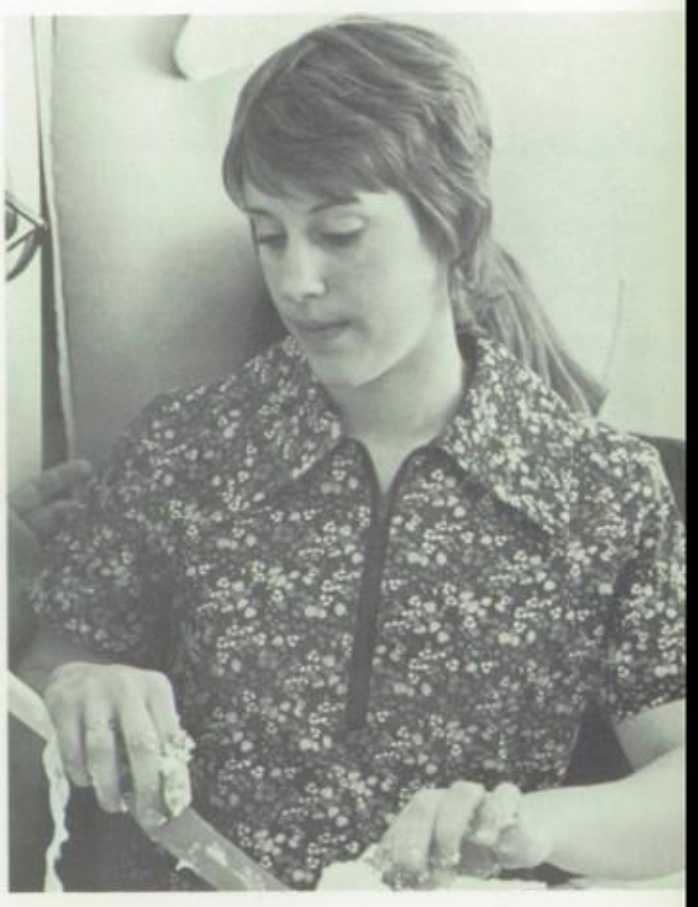
a generation of specialists . . . a generation of students knowing themselves . . . yet not knowing themselves at all . . . an aware generation knowing its rebellions, ideas, achievements, pressures, and entertainments.



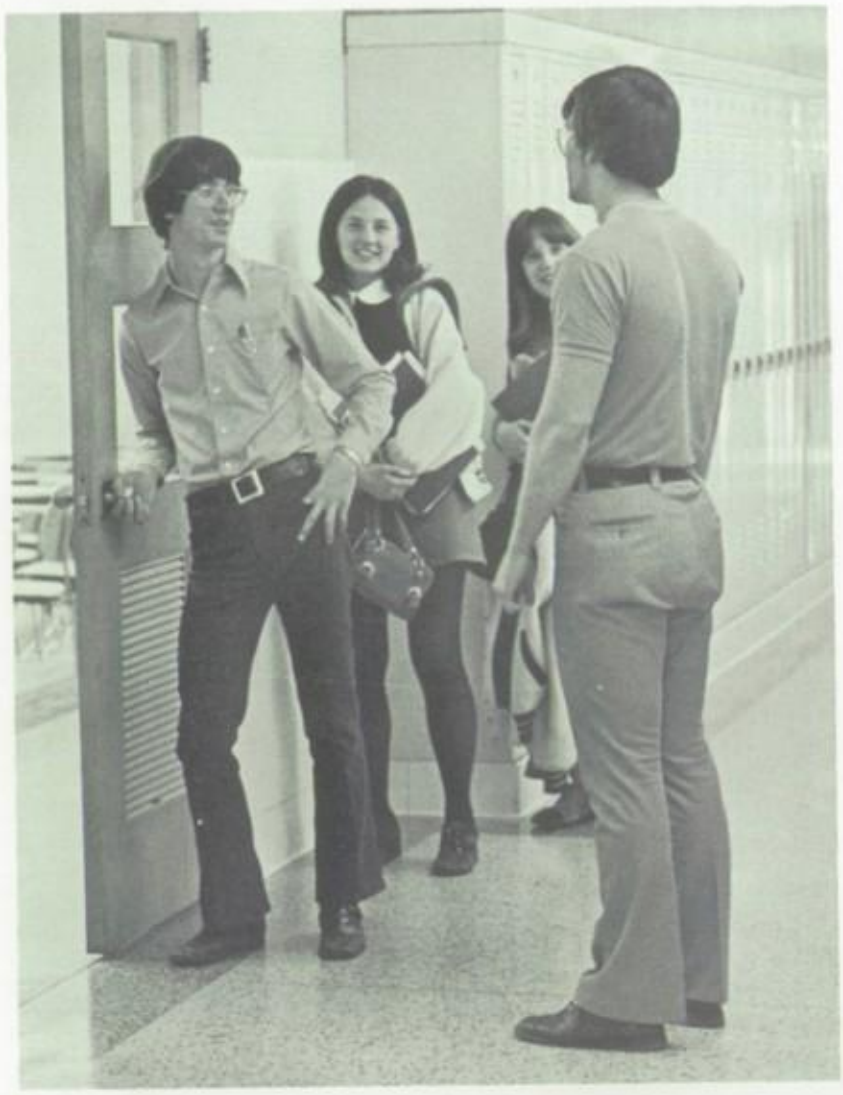




Autumn to winter, winter into spring,
Spring into summer, summer into fall, —
So rolls the changing year, and so we change;
Motion so swift, we know not that we move.
— Dianah Mulock Craik



a teacher helps to mold a generation . . . giving them answers . . . and reasons for believing . . . from his desire to help his students learn, he must enkindle them with the desire to learn . . . he must be their understanding friend and, at times, he should be one of them.



wanting to be out on their own . . . yet at the same time reluctant to leave . . . grasping each moment as it came . . . but succeeding only in making their year unforgettable.
